Newspaper Laws.

We would call the special attention of postmasters and subscribers to the following synopsis of the newspaper laws:

1. A postmaster is required to give notice by letter (returning a paper does not answer the law) when a subscriber does not take his paper out of the office, and state the reasons for its not being taken; and a neglect to do so makes the postmaster responsible to the publisher for the payment.

2. Any person who takes a paper from the postoffice, whether directed to his name or another, or whether he has subscribed or not, is responsible for the pay.

3. If a person orders his paper discontinued, he must pay all arrearages, or the publisher may continue to send it until the payment is made.

4. If the subscriber orders his paper to be stopped at a certain time, and the publisher continues to send, the subscriber is bound to pay for it if he takes it from the postoffice. The law proceeds upon the ground that a man must pay for what he uses.

5. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The rates we have established for advertising will be strictly adhered to in every instance. They are as low as any paper established on a firm basis, with a wide circulation, can do business. We desire choice advertisements, and will give preference always to local patronage. We think business men will get value received when they employ our columns in making known their business to our hundreds of readers; and, therefore, ask no one to patronize us out of charity, and do not want a man's money unless we give him value received. A glance at our paper will convince shrewd observers of the advantages our columns offer, as the best business men in this country are represented in them. We could easily fill our paper with foreign advertisements, sundry languages, patent medicines, etc., but are not working on the low principle—inserting stuff in our columns that we would blush to recommend to our readers, at lower rates than we charge house patrons, but will do up—no charge all alike, foreign and local—and reject all that are not reliable and worthy the attention of our readers. As an inducement to reliable wholesale business houses, we say that the JOURNAL has a larger circulation in four counties of Kentucky than all the other Kentucky newspapers combined.

Advertising Rates given on application.

FROM WAYNE COUNTY.

The Fair—A Full List of Premiums Awarded—News and Stock Items—Some Interesting Disclosures and a Few Worthwhile Words from the Abecedarian of the "Dark and Bloody Ground."

MONTICELLO, KY., Oct. 15, 1873.

Correspondence Interior Journal:

We send to-day full proceedings of the Wayne county Fair, kindly furnished us by the secretary, J. W. Tuttle, Esq.
Contrary to general expectation our Fair was a decided success. The weather was clear, cool and immensely pleasant.
There was a greater amount of stock, and of better quality shown than was expected. Although the attendance was not large there was a good crowd present, especially the last day. The good order and soberness was remarkable and reflects great credit on the police. Of course there was a few drunken fools—they are perfectly indispensable—but they received prompt attention at the hands of the "business" marshals.

The music was fine, the Monticello Cornet Band being assisted by the Somerset Amateur Band. Upon the whole we must pronounce it a good Fair, especially at noon, we "fired" sumptuously.
The Board of Directors and stockholders met at Monticello last Saturday and made some arrangements about our next year's Fair. We understand that the next will be somewhat of a "new departure," gate fees being only 25c. for all, whether riding or walking, and no entrance fee at all. The Directors say they intend to have a good Fair next year. A free thing for everybody.

Mr. R. C. Spencer, our accomplished vocal musician, a graduate of the Boston Academy of Music, is now lecturing a class at No. 1 School-house. He has just finished a school at Bethany, in the Shearer valley, giving unbounded satisfaction.
We had the pleasure of attending a concert given by himself and class at Bethany on last Saturday evening.
Owing to the extreme inclemency of the weather, the crowd was not large, everybody seemed to enjoy themselves remarkably.
Some fine pieces were well sung by the class, such as: "Over There," "Beautiful River," "Sabbath Bell," "What shall the Harvest be?" "We shall know each other there," "Beautiful Home," "The Sunset Land," "Rock of Ages," etc. The exercises were interspersed with some inimitable comic pieces by Mr. Spencer. The class sustained themselves admirably and gave unmistakable evidence of a skillful and thorough training.

SOME INTERESTING DISCLOSURES BY OUR WORTHY COMMISSIONER.

We had the pleasure (?) of listening, a few days ago, to a little speech of some two and a half hours in length, by Mr.
R. Burnett, our School Commissioner, in which he developed some novel and startling theories. As the truth (?) contained therein may be new to the readers of the INTERIOR JOURNAL we give the principal points he fought so nobly to sustain. 1. That the American Speller, by Noble Butler, A. M., of Louisville, was a "grand humbug." 2. That there was not a mathematician in the State of Kentucky, that would conscientiously impose Prof. P. A. Towne's Series of

TO-DAY'S ITEMS.

New style hats at the Trade Palace.

$1,000 worth of black rep silks at the Trade Palace.

The best Tobacco and Cigars in the City at the Postoffice.

A full line of superior fabrics in mourning offered at Hayden's.

Everybody invited to call at the Trade Palace immediately.

Geo. D. Wearan pays the highest market price for beef hides, etc.

Take the children to the Trade Palace and fit them in shoes and hats.

Hayden's furniture department is thronged with purchasers every day.

Carson & Dodd's have re-opened their confectionery and oyster saloon.

The best custom made boots and shoes can be found at the Trade Palace.

R. E. Cross & Co. keep about thirty salesmen to wait on their customers.

R. E. Cross & Co. know how to keep their house full of customers all the time.

Notions and fancy goods, white fabrics and trimming, are abundant at Hayden's.

A new supply of colored alpaccas and black silks received at Hayden's yesterday.

A large stock of choice piano music, vocal and instrumental, at Bohon & Staggs.

Hayden is receiving the second invoice of boots and shoes—bought at panic prices.

The prettiest sight in town—the tastefully dressed show-windows at the Trade Palace.

The dress goods department at the Trade Palace embraces every desirable fabric, style and price.

L. H. Singleton, of the Hawkins Branch neighborhood, has a No. 1 lot of feeding cattle for sale.

Why shiver and freeze while Hayden has stacks and cords of ready-made clothing at low figures.

If you want to be a Granger and with the Granger's stand, buy one of Hayden's ne plus ultra chromium-kivers.

Every farmer in Lincoln county should instantly become the happy possessor of one of Hayden's "Granger" hats.

Old winter approacheth and everybody should know that E. B. Hayden's is head quarters for boots and shoes.

"Oh, the snow, the snow, the beautiful snow"—but it can't penetrate one of Hayden's superior and cheap overcoats.

Remember the removal of Craig & McAllister's Trade Palace. It is a real treat to see their new goods and handsome store-room.

Successful business men always keep their business before the people, by advertising. Read the advertisement of R. E. Cross & Co.

A splendid line of shuck and cotton-top mattresses at Hayden's, is a guarantee that bachelors, with a few shads, needn't freeze this winter.

Hayden's sales for the week ending last night, actually foot—speaking of a foot reminds us of the extensive stock of foot-wear at Hayden's.

There cannot be found a better stock of goods in the South or West, than R. E. Cross & Co. are receiving and selling daily at 300 and 302 Market street, near Eighth, Louisville, Kentucky.

The Alexander Hotel, corner Eighth and Main streets, is refitted up in neat and splendid style. If you want to be bountifully fed on the best of fare and sleep upon a nice clean bed, and have every want cared for, stop with Alexander.

We have seen places crowded with customers to buy everything mentioned in the advertisement of R. E. Cross & Co.; but have never seen any house so crowded as the one at 300 and 302 Market street, near Eighth, Louisville, Kentucky.

Jno. O. McAllister advertises in another column, $10,000 worth of goods at cost. John's honesty endeavoring to clean out his stock, having determined to change his business, and really desires no more than prime cost for his goods. There is no trick in this, and persons who want goods cheap, should give him a call immediately.

The statements of our National Banks ap pear in another column. It affords us pleas ure to see the goodly report they present. No one has ever for a moment entertained a thought of either of our banks suspending payment, or even ceasing to furnish all the accommodation required for legitimate pur poses. They are sound to the core, and em inently worthy of public confidence.

On Monday last, Mr. Neil Traylor offered a small lot of yearling mules, at public sale, on twelve months time, bearing 6 per cent. inter est. How is that for ante-bellum days? The mules were withdrawn at $70 per head.

"Uncle" Neil said he had no use for the mules and less use for the money. Here then, is something to beat Craddock: A Lincoln county man out of debt and money ahead.

If you would thrust your incisors into ten times, you must pay the butcher. We have recently discovered the important secret, and as we revel in Knightly sirloin, we contem bleak winds and barren pastures of winter.

Ramsey is a clever murderer of four-footed beasts of the field, but poor pay oftentimes brings gum-elastic steaks and sheet-iron roasts.

The pay train of the L. & N. & G. S. R. R., started out on its mission from Louisville on Wednesday of last week, but has not reached the needy employees of the Knoxville Branch.

We learn that the Company is only paying one month's wages to employees whom they owe for two month's services. Many of them are indisposed to submit to such treatment, and have accepted full pay and a prompt dis charge.

Dr. Dave Logan, of Boyle county, was in town last Friday in pursuit of a certain "French gentleman" who appropriated his fine saddle mare the night before. He and officer Atkins made a trip down into the moun tains, and returned on Sunday without finding any trace of the mare or thief. On Tuesday evening Mr. Huff Dudderar found the mare in the woods near Hall's Gap Station, and re turned her to the owner on Wednesday. It is supposed that she escaped from the inclosures of the thief and was making her way home.

The Autumn woods are now transcendantly beautiful in their gold and crimson robes. Far to the South of us a line of hills, rising like a vast amphitheater, and stretching for many miles, present to the appreciative eye a scene of beauty and grandeur found nowhere on earth more splendid than in our own climate.

No other country can equal ours in the forest drapery of Autumn. Italy has her smoky hills and hazy atmosphere, but the gorgeous coloring of wood and field so common in our peerless climate can be found nowhere else under the circuit of the sun. The many-hued maples, the fiery torches of the sumac, the yellow and golden tints of the birch and oak, make up a picture in our woods at this season of the year which the art of the painter can never portray.
